

For Immediate Release

A camp novel to write home about!

Morgy's Musical Summer

By Maggie Lewis

Illustrated by Michael Chesworth

Morgy thinks Outlook Music Camp is a long way to go to get good at the trumpet. It's almost Canada! But Colonel Profundo gave him a "promising beginner" scholarship. His friends Byron and Clara are coming, too. Dad says, "It's not just for trumpet—it's summer camp and you'll love it."

But Dad doesn't know the half of it. There's canoeing, swimming, soccer, and wild games of musical chairs. But there's also Damian, an oboe prodigy and bully. And Byron and Clara are in band while Morgy's stuck in orchestra, playing a solo. What is Morgy supposed to do if he can barely read music, he misses his dog, Dante, and his cat, Pancake, his best friend is in love with their trumpet teacher, and he sees soldiers in three-cornered hats sneaking through the camp at night?

Keep practicing, of course!

Perfect for the budding musician, summer camp enthusiast, or reluctant camp attendee, Morgy's Musical Summer is a fun frolic through the pages for any reader.

Maggie Lewis lives in Ipswich, Massachusetts, with her husband and three children.

Michael Chesworth has illustrated many books for children. He lives in Amherst, Massachusetts.

Morgy's Musical Summer* • May 2008

Ages 6–9 • 112 pages • $15.00 • Fiction • ISBN-13/EAN: 978-0-618-77707-5

~

And don't forget to check out Morgy's other adventures!

Morgy Makes His Move

978-0-618-19680-7

$4.95 Paperback

Morgy Coast to Coast

978-0-618-96641-7

$4.95 Paperback

Coming in April!

Houghton Mifflin Company • Boston, Massachusetts • www.houghtonmifflinbooks.com

Available wherever books are sold or by calling 1-800-225-3362